Description	Willani is a well established company that has been working in the olive oil sector for generations on the paths of ancestors that have worked to perpetuate the traditions of the region, famous in Lebanon for its high quality olive oil. The state of the art press installed in Bechnnine works non-stop during the season and welcomes producers of the whole region. Willani also produces all types of olive oil derivatives.
Brand name	Recently, the general manager, Mr. Khoury, has poured his energy and determination into the production of a high quality extra virgin olive with an aroma that has won the first prize in the 2007 National Extra Virgin Olive Oil Contest, "Hiram". The olive fields of Al Zawie in the verdant land of Northern Lebanon are meticulously cared for to guarantee the finest quality of oil. Hiram Extra Virgin olive oil is extracted from the Sourani olive variety, named after the city of Sour (Tyre) in the South. During the harvesting season, from November until January, olives are hand picked with the help of modern tools and directly transported to the press. Hiram Extra Virgin Olive Oil is cold-pressed as per international quality standards. It is extracted without any chemical additives. . Hiram oil is rich in nutritive elements as well as in polyphenols that can improve cardiovascular health and help protect the heart.

Hiram Extra Virgin Olive Oil is bottled in dark opaque bottles to protect it from light, and preserve its quality in the best possible way. This oil must be kept in a temperature-stable environment to maintain its optimal taste and quality.

“Hiram Extra Virgin Olive Oil” is famous for its unique aroma and delicious olive taste, qualities that the family enterprise has worked on preserving for over 75 years.
